Comprehensive Ophthalmologist - Vancouver

Position Summary

Within the context of a patient and family-centered model of care, and in accordance with the Mission, Vision, Values, and strategic directions of Providence Health Care ("Providence"), the Department of Ophthalmology is seeking a Comprehensive Ophthalmologist at Providence Health Care

The successful applicant will be provided admitting/surgical privileges at Mount St. Joseph Hospital (MSJ). They will be required to run a Resident Teaching Clinic at St. Paul's Hospital (SPH) each week and provide a leadership role in Resident Teaching both in clinic and the operating room. The primary practice location will be Vancouver (minimum 4 days/week).

Interest and experience working with socioeconomically disadvantaged patients will be considered an asset for this appointment. The successful applicant will be eligible for a Clinical Faculty appointment in the Department of Ophthalmology & Visual Sciences, in the Faculty of Medicine, at the University of British Columbia.

PHC is a merit base organization and is committed to employment equality. Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion are important to the selection process at PHC and individuals from historically disadvantaged groups are encouraged to apply. Canadians and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. Only shortlisted applicants will be contacted.

Qualifications

Applicant must hold or be eligible for certification by the Royal College of Physicians & Surgeons of Canada in Ophthalmology and be eligible for licensing by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of BC.

The successful candidate will also exemplify Providence's values and contribute to a culture of equity, diversity, and inclusion. In addition, Providence is committed to our responsibilities on Truth and Reconciliation. We hold ourselves accountable for making our care, facilities, and services a safer experience for Indigenous patients, residents, families, staff, and Medical Staff.

Why PHC

Providence is a non-profit Catholic organization that provides services in partnership with Vancouver Coastal Health and the Provincial Health Services Authority. At Providence we embrace compassionate care, social justice, and innovation while delivering medical services to vulnerable populations across Vancouver and its neighbouring communities. Providence is committed to building a culture of equity, diversity, and inclusion where the staff and Medical Staff – both current and prospective – feel welcomed, valued, and supported to thrive in their work. As we look towards the future, we are led by four strategic pillars: quality-forward, people-forward, learning-forward, and partnerships-forward. We invite you to join us as we work towards building the future of healthcare in British Columbia.

How to Apply

To build a strong and representative workforce, we encourage physicians from all backgrounds to apply. We are deeply committed to diversity within our community, and welcome applications from Indigenous persons, people of colour, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity, and others who may contribute to the further diversification and inclusion of ideas, practices, and ways of knowing that can improve our care and services.
